Gilbertsville Party Honors Ray Butler

A birthday party and supper was given recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Briggman, Gilbertsville, honoring Ray Butler, of Grand Rivers. Mr. Butler was celebrating his sixtieth birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Draffen and children, Jonda Gail and Douglas, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Clark and daughter, the Rev. S. C. Haynes, Mrs. Dollie Briggman, Walter Kennedy, Dean Barter, Sandra and Nellie King, and the guest of honor.

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK IS OCT. 6-11

It Should Be Observed Every Week

This need not be your tragedy... not if you take ordinary, common sense care. Check that old heap of newspapers you're saving. Keep matches covered and away from children. Test your electrical wiring and avoid overloading outlets. Keep kitchen curtains away from ovens. Not difficult to do, are they? And yet these simple precautions spare you the untold heartbreak and ruin fire brings to careless people.

CHECK UP NOW TO PREVENT FUTURE LOSSES!

Leather in Fashion Spotlight

Here's a girl whose whole appearance spells style. Her green tweed suit with boxed jacket is straight from the pages of Harper's Bazaar. And her accessories point up the editor's report that "leather is big fashion news." The zippered bag and cord-seamed gloves are made of tan pigskin—a perfect leather in color and texture to go with rugged tweeds.

SOUTH BENTON NEWS

(Held over from Last Week)

By MRS. M. U. SIRES
Mr. and Mrs. Carl Greenfield and son Carl Wayne and Mr. Dal Greenfield and son Jackie have returned from a vacation trip to Florida. They visited six states on the trip.

They visited Lookout Mountain and while in Chattanooga visited some old friends from Akron, Ohio. They saw the famous Battle of Atlanta at the Cyclorama at Atlanta, Ga.

They also visited Jacksonville, Fla., and explored historical old St. Augustine. They swam in the Atlantic Ocean at Daytona Beach and in the Gulf of Mexico Sarasota. While in Tampa they visited Mr. and Mrs. Scott Greenfield and the W. K. Jeffreys, senior and junior.

The Church Grove WSCS met recently at the home of Mrs. Alvie Green. The program, The Good News, was presented by Mrs. L. V. Martin, Mrs. Luther White, Mrs. Alvie Green and Mrs. Jim Barnes.

Music was presented by Mrs. Harry Henson. Mrs. Carl Greenfield, president, presided over the business session.

Refreshments were served by Misses Anna Law and Wilda Green to six members and two visitors. Mrs. Luther White entertained Thursday of last week with a chicken dinner at Kentucky Dam State Park honoring Mrs. Dal Greenfield, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Gallier of Akron, Ohio, and Mrs. Bobby Elkins. The group also enjoyed swimming and sight-seeing.

Mr. and Mrs. Dal Greenfield and Jackie, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Gallier have returned to their home in Akron, Ohio.

Girl Scouts Pick Officers at Season's First Meeting

By DIAN HIETT
Troop Scribe

The Benton Girl Scouts began the year with work and fun. We sold popcorn and other items in the grandstand during the Fair and made a little money for our treasury. Then on Saturday, Sept. 13, we went to the lake on a hay-ride and wicker roast. We had lots of fun singing, riding, and eating out of doors.

Our first regular troop meeting was held on Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 17, in the Methodist Church basement. Our troop leader, Mrs. John Gilliam, and her assistants, Mrs. Richard Cooksey and Mrs. Travis Downs, were there to get us organized.

We elected the following officers: treasurer, Mignon Nelson; scribe, Dian Hiett; Patrol leader, Sandra Johnson; and leader, Sandra Johnson; and Patrol 3 leader, Jane Duffy.

We made plans to begin work on the Game Badge which will help us to teach as well as take part in different types of games. We chose to learn tennis while the weather is still pretty and then on bad days we can work on some indoor games.

We are looking forward to having lots of fun this year and at the same time learn some interesting and useful things.

HOT DOG!

They might be "corn dogs" to some folks, or French fried frankfurters to others, but in our card file of recipes this hot dog consists of delicious Corn Covered Wieners.

Your favorite corn meal does the trick of combining corn and meat to make something entirely new out of a hot dog. With or without the convenient skewers, they make easy eating for the entire family.

Mother likes them, particularly, because corn covered wieners are easy and quick to prepare, and something the entire family likes. They will delight hearty adult appetites and bring a demand for extra helpings from hungry youngsters.

Typical of all corn bread, the "doggy" covering does not become soggy during cooking, and it holds the heat in the rest for extra satisfaction in hot meal serving. Try them soon for lunch when the children come home from school, or the main meal of the day when the entire family can enjoy them. They are easy to make and fun to eat.

CORN COVERED WIENERS

- 1/2 cup corn meal
- 1 cup plain flour
- 1 1/2 teaspoons baking powder
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 2 tablespoons fat
- 1 egg, beaten slightly
- 3/4 cup sweet milk
- 1 lb. wieners
- Deep fat
- If self-rising corn meal and flour are used, omit baking powder and salt.
- Combine first four ingredients. Cut in fat to resemble fine crumbs. Combine egg and milk; add to first mixture, and stir well until mixed. Insert wooden skewers into wieners; spread wieners with corn meal mixture and fry until brown in deep fat which has been heated to 325°F. Serve with chili sauce.

THE WEEK'S RECIPE

Fall weather is good pie-eating weather. And Black Bottom pie is a favorite all over the country. Try this brand new recipe.

BLACK BOTTOM PIE

- 1 9-inch baked pie shell
- 1 tablespoon corn starch
- 1 cup sugar
- 4 eggs, separated
- 2 cups, scalded milk
- 1 package semi-sweet chocolate morsels
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- 1 tablespoon gelatin
- 1-4 cup cold water
- Mix cornstarch and 1-2 cup sugar. Separate eggs, beat yolks and add scalded milk yolks slowly, stirring constantly. Add sugar-cornstarch mixture to milk and cook in double boiler, stirring until custard coats spoon.

Divide custard into halves. To one half, add 3-4 of the package of chocolate morsels and stir until chocolate is melted.

Add vanilla and pour chocolate mixture into bottom of pie shell, to remaining half of pie custard add gelatin which has soaked 5 minutes in cold water. Stir until dissolved.

Beat egg whites, adding remaining 1-2 cup sugar gradually until mixture is shiny and holds its shape. Fold custard-gelatin mixture into egg whites.

Pour over chocolate layer and chill until set. Garnish with remaining 1-4 package chocolate.

SCRIPTURE: Matthew 10:1-11:1
DEVOTIONAL READING: John 15:1-17:1

Immortal Twelve

Lesson for November 16, 1952

If the twelve Apostles wanted to join your church, would you let them in? Peter Marshall thought not. Books of sermons are often dull reading, but Dr. Marshall's book called Mr. Jones, Meet the Master is as fascinating a book as you are likely to find anywhere.

One of his famous sermons goes over an imagined application of the twelve Apostles for membership in a typical American church. One by one each man is rejected—all but Judas! As a man of money the church wants his services.

Unpromising Material

Not to steal Peter Marshall's sermon, nor to spoil your appetite for it in case you do read it, but just to explore the possibilities, let's imagine yourself passing on the application of these men for church membership. There is Simon Peter... Well! He is a fisherman and a sailor, and you know what sailor's language is, sometimes. A man noted for talking before he thinks. Not among our best people (they would say in Capernaum); lives down by the docks somewhere, smells of fish. No education, very limited background. Better wait. Maybe he could find a little chapel down nearer his work he'd be happier there. And then there's James and his brother John. Hot-tempered and ambitious, in fact so conceited they're hard to live with. They would certainly want to be at the top—if thrones are passed out they will want one apiece in the front row. If they are crossed they are likely to call down fire from heaven—not that they'll get it, but that's the kind of young men they are. No, they will be too hot to handle. Let them go join some sect that will give their emotions a chance. We'll be too slow and too cold for them.

Then there is Thomas, for instance. Just the opposite of Peter. A cold, gloomy man. Takes the dark view of everything. What you want in the church is men of faith, and this is a man who is sure to be called the Doubter. Skepticism is contagious; we have enough doubters now without electing another one. Let's leave him out. Then there is Philip, a stupid man if ever you saw one. You can say a thing to him over and over and he still won't get it. And Bartholomew and Thaddeus or Lebbaeus or whatever his name is, and another James and another Simon—their names are common and so are they. Just who are they, the whole lot of them? Nobody. That's all you can say. Can you name one that has made a name for himself outside his native village—or in it, for that matter? What have they got to contribute? Haven't we got enough dead wood in the church as it is without adding some more people who will be nothing but names? Seems to me the pastor must have been scraping the bottom of the barrel—these men certainly didn't come from the top.

Jesus Made Difference

Even worse than all that could have been said of some of the Twelve. There was one very doubtful character among them, the man Matthew the Publican. Publicans were tax-collectors for the Roman government. No one respected them; Jesus himself used the name Publican as meaning the lowest class of men. Who knew how sincere Matthew was when he joined the Twelve? There was also Judas, immortal for another reason; who was and who remained a devil. Jesus called two of these men devils at different times; Judas stayed one, but Peter changed. That lets us in to the secret of why Jesus chose these particular men. It was not for what they were at the time, not for anything they had accomplished, but for what he could do with them. That Jesus chose these men. He selected them for a particular reason: that they should go out and tell other men about him. To be ready to do this, they were to spend some time in close contact with him. When these men went out to speak for Jesus and the Kingdom of God they knew what they were talking about... and they were different men. All but Judas, who missed his life's great chance. For these other men had let Christ have his way with them. That is what the Church is and ought to be: the community of men and women who are being transformed, by Christ, for service in his name.

Social Security Checks for 210 in County are Bigger

This week will bring increased social security checks to about 210 aged people in Marshall County, according to Don Menefee, field representative of the Social Security office in Paducah. Checks mailed during the first week in October will show the increased benefits.

Increases of from $5 to $8 each month will go to most retired workers who are receiving old-age insurance payments. Dependents of these retired workers and survivors of workers who have died will also receive increased benefits in most cases. Increases in payments to dependents and survivors, however, will be smaller than the increases for retired workers — usually from $2 to $5.

Mr. Menefee pointed out that although several members of a family may receive monthly payments based on the social security account of a retired or deceased worker, the law sets

Baptist Convention Slated at Paducah

The Southwestern Baptist Sunday School Convention will convene Oct. 9 at Immanuel Baptist Church, Paducah, with Dr. J. D. Grey, president of the Southern Baptist Convention and pastor of First Baptist Church, New Orleans, as the principle speaker.

Dr. Grey is a native of Paducah and an honorary Kentucky Colonel.

The one-day meeting is for the Baptist Churches of Ballard, McCracken, Carlisle, Hickman, Graves and Marshall counties.

Pains, distress of "those days" stopped or amazingly relieved

In 3 out of 4 cases in doctors' tests!

Here's wonderful news for women and girls who — each month — suffer the tortures of "bad days" of functionally-caused menstrual cramps and pain — headaches, backaches, and those "no-good," dragged-out feelings.

It's news about a medicine famous for relieving such suffering!

Here is the exciting news. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound — gave complete or striking relief of such distress in an average of 3 out of 4 of the cases in doctors' tests!

Scientifically Modern Action

Yes! Lydia Pinkham's has been proved to be scientifically modern in action!

This news will not surprise the thousands of women and girls who take Lydia Pinkham's regularly and know the relief it can bring.

And it should encourage you (if you're not taking Lydia Pinkham's) to see if your experience doesn't match theirs... to see if you, too, don't avoid the nervousness and tension, weakness, irritability — and pain — so often associated with "those days"!

How Lydia Pinkham's works. It has a "calming" and "soothing" effect on the uterus... quieting the contractions (see the chart) that so often cause menstrual pain, cramps, other distress.

Remember Lydia Pinkham's, too — if you're suffering the "hot flashes" and other functionally-caused distress of "change of life."

A HELPING HAND

By Martha White

Sharpen Your Own Scissors

Did your husband ever cut linum with your best pair of scissors? Mine did, and after I had taken over my "mad," he showed me a trick that made me happy again.

He got out a piece of sandpaper from his tool box, just cut it through several times with the scissors — and there they were, just as nice and sharp as ever!

I tried the trick with my pinkie shears, too, which are always so hard to keep in good condition, and it even worked with them. In fact, I use my pinkie shears for so many things, I can't imagine how I got along without them. Whenever I have a turkish towel that is about to wear out, I make hot pads with it. Just use scraps of colorful material for the covers. To make it really easy, I sew around the edges with my sewing machine, then trim it off with the pinkie shears. It makes an attractive edging, plus being so very easy to do.
